

THE NEW COMEDY.—Miss Laura Keane has been playing for a number of nights a clever comedy entitled "Nice Points of the Law." It is written by Mr. Tom Taylor, if we may credit Mr. Tom Taylor's assertion, though it looks amazingly like a dramatic derivative from the inevitable French root from which sprang the greater part of our modern plays. It is a lively little piece, admirably acted, by Miss Ada Clifton, Miss Macarty, Mr. Vincent, Mr. Mark Smith, Mr. Levick, etc. In the course of the piece Miss Clifton has to personate several strongly marked styles of character, utterly at variance with each other, which she does in capital style. In the gay, vivacious, dashing type she is especially happy. Miss Macarty is also excellent in a little part. Vincent repeats the pompous, mock-heroic rolling gait with much genuine humor, and makes a most effective part of it. Mr. Mark Smith plays a comical old man in his best style. Mr. Levick has but little chance to make a sensation. Miss Henry created quite a sensation by playing an insignificant part in a manner so good that it would have done credit to an artist of much greater pretensions. The piece has been very successful.

MOORE ST. VINCENT ACADEMY.—The great school of the Sisters of Charity, now at Fitchburg, near New York, held the usual annual distribution of premiums and exhibition yesterday. Until this season, the school was at Mount St. Vincent, near Elmsford; but the land was taken for the Central Park, and with the money paid for it the Sisters bought the estate built by Edwin Purcell, and have put up an immense edifice, larger in capacity than the City Hall, for their educational purposes. It is a handsome brick structure, on the high bluff which almost overhangs the river, and is so situated as to give a splendid view along the river and bay, from Staten Island to Philadelphia. The grounds are in a wild state, but can easily be cultivated to a high condition. There are about eighty of the Sisters now there, who have charge of the house, and several hundred pupils—all girls of tender years, who are in all stages of progress in orthography, reading, writing, grammar, rhetoric, composition, history, natural philosophy, geography, astronomy, botany, chemistry, arithmetic, book-keeping, principles of algebra and geometry, French, Spanish and German Languages; music, on the piano, organ, harp and guitar; vocal music; drawing, painting in water-colors and oil; plain and ornamental needlework, etc.

Yesterday there was a great gathering of the relatives and friends of the pupils, no less than fifteen of the large cars of the Hudson River Railroad being filled from this city alone. Archbishop Hughes presided at the exercises, and nearly all the priests of that faith in New York and Brooklyn were with him. It is unnecessary to detail the proceedings. There were a couple of hundred girls in white dresses and joyful anticipations on one side, and a couple of thousands of delighted friends in half as many colors on the other, while in the place of honor sat the hierarchy. There was plenty of music, most of it very excellent, on pianos and harps; the coronation of those who had reached a certain rather severe standard of excellence; the distribution of premiums, mostly handsomely bound books; more music; a recitation; more premiums; more music; one solo; more music; more premiums; a good deal more music; an address, or soliloquy upon leaving the old home and possessing the new; a few plain and well-chosen remarks by the Archbishop; some more music, and school was out, from which moment all was an uproar of congratulations, kisses, introductions, concluding by a picnic-like ramble through the beautiful grounds. Everything passed off delightfully.

LINE TO CALIFORNIA AND SALT LAKE.—Contracts were executed in this city today by the Western Union Telegraph Co., the Missouri River Telegraph Co., and the Missouri, Kansas, and Utah Telegraph Co., by which the former company have become the controllers of all the Telegraph lines west of St. Louis, and arrangements are now in progress, and an ample means provided to extend the lines of the two latter companies, under the general superintendence of Charles M. Scheib, esq., from St. Louis to Fort Smith, 360 miles on the route of the Butterfield overland mail, and from St. Louis to Atchison and Utah. The latter is now in successful operation a distance of about 400 miles west of St. Louis, and the line to California, via Fort Smith, is in good way; order about 300 miles west of St. Louis. By the latter line, which will soon open another section of about 200 miles, the Associated Press will receive very full reports of California news three or four days in advance of the arrival of the Overland Mail at St. Louis.

SHOOTING.—Last evening Officer Howell of the Fourteenth Precinct apprehended two women, giving their names as Mary Graham and Margaret Morgan, on a charge of grand larceny preferred by a clerk in the employ of Baldwin & Co. of the Bowery. The woman entered the store with the ostensible purpose of making purchases, and while engaged in examining the various fabrics one was seen to conceal a piece of velvet under her dress. The clerk who witnessed the operation caused her arrest, and upon examining them at the Station House vestings and other goods to the value of $125 were found concealed under their clothing. The prisoners appeared to be English women, and said they resided in Brooklyn, whither Officer Howell was dispatched to search their apartments for stolen goods.

MILITARY.—The officers of the Highland Guard 24th Regiment N. Y. S. M., met last evening at the Mercer House, and elected Mr. David McLean as Major. Col. McLean presided. The matter as to uniforms was considered and partly adopted. The Regiment will have two uniforms, one in conformity with State regulations and the other for dress parades, made up for the most part from the Highland costume.

MONSIEUR VALLEY BANK OF PENNSYLVANIA.—Writing from the White Mountains, N. H., Sept. 8, 1893, Mr. J. Tyler says in relation to an account of open time given by the Monsieure Valley Bank: I desire to state that, instead of my being positioned as an ex parte statement, I am, as a matter of fact, a witness to the fact that the bank is in a position to continue its operations, and that the facts of its financial condition, as well as the facts of its operations, are such as to justify the public in being reassured as to the future of the bank. The bank is in a position to continue its operations, and that the facts of its financial condition, as well as the facts of its operations, are such as to justify the public in being reassured as to the future of the bank.
